

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
		1 Make a paper snowflake pathway and tell a story about it.	2 Go for a family walk. Spell winter words .	3 Make up a new game that uses something from your kitchen.	4 Bake a fun winter treat. Pick one of these or find your own.	5 Find a winter story – read or listen, and share some quality time.
6 Find winter trivia , and discuss what you already knew and what you learned.	7 Make your own snow! Use this recipe to have snowy play all day.	8 Design your own scavenger hunt using spelling words, math facts, books, etc.	9 Make a sensory bottle , and enjoy the stress-reducing object all year long.	10 Family movie night! Follow these suggestions , and discuss .	11 Try pen and paper games . Use your imagination to add your own twists.	12 Learn a magic trick. Check out these simple illusions .
13 Learn how to make a stop-motion video . Use items in your home.	14 Try ice bowling with frozen water balloons and empty bottles.	15 Make your own film. See this link for ideas or come up with your own.	16 Create a maze . Recreate it in the snow or using household objects .	17 Develop a list of things to photograph . Make it a contest or competition.	18 Build a tic tac toe board using objects from outside/home.	19 Learn how to draw something new. Find your own demo or use this one .
20 Check out holiday light displays around Omaha. Decide who's are the best!	21 Make classic s'mores or come up with creative new ones.	22 Fill out 5 Mad-Lib stories online. Try not to repeat any words.	23 Put on a winter fashion show. Pair with some fun music and work it!	24 Complete a jigsaw puzzle online or at home.	25 Create a kindness jar . Set a goal for how many acts of kindness you will complete.	26 Learn how to make paper airplanes . Decorate and let them fly!
27 Use a prompt to write or tell 5 stories.	28 Challenge the family in Minute-to-Win-It Games . See who's champion.	29 Choose an at-home science experiment and see what you can do!	30 Pick a new dinner recipe and let your scholar help prepare it!	31 Write a list of goals for the new year. Post it where everyone can see it.

DEC
2020